

Change in Personal Particulars of Officers eServices

The eForms for changing personal particulars of officers have been enhanced to cut down the time required for users to fill out eForms and ensures the accuracy of information submitted.

Users now simply need to update the relevant personal particulars as the other information have been obtained from the relevant government agencies.

For users' convenience, only modified personal particulars will be displayed on the preview page with current and modified information.

We have also added an explanatory note and pop-up window to guide customer to add, update or remove the alternate address.
