Temporary exemption from SFRS(I) 9

20A SFRS(I) 9 addresses the accounting for financial instruments and is effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2018. However, for an insurer that meets the criteria in paragraph 20B, this SFRS(I) provides a temporary exemption that permits, but does not require, the insurer to apply SFRS(I) 1-39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement rather than SFRS(I) 9 for annual periods beginning before 1 January 2023~~2024~~. 20J If an entity no longer qualifies for the temporary exemption from SFRS(I) 9 as a result of a reassessment (see paragraph 20G(a)), then the entity is permitted to continue to apply the temporary exemption from SFRS(I) 9 only until the end of the annual period that began immediately after that reassessment. Nevertheless, the entity must apply SFRS(I) 9 for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2023~~2024~~. For example, if an entity determines that it no longer qualifies for the temporary exemption from SFRS(I) 9 applying paragraph 20G(a) on 31 December 2018 (the end of its annual period), then the entity is permitted to continue to apply the temporary exemption from SFRS(I) 9 only until 31 December 2019.

Nevertheless, for annual periods beginning before 1 January 2023~~2024~~, an entity is permitted, but not required, to retain the relevant accounting policies applied by the associate or joint venture as follows:
