EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

This Bill seeks to amend the Companies Act 1967 and the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005 to require companies, foreign companies and limited liability partnerships to take certain measures to ensure that the particulars of their controllers are up-to-date and correct. The Bill also makes other amendments to those Acts.

Part 1 (clauses 2 to 13) sets out the amendments to the Companies Act 1967 (the Companies Act).

Part 2 (clauses 14 to 18) sets out the amendments to the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2005.

Clause 1 relates to the short title and commencement.

PART 1 AMENDMENT OF COMPANIES ACT 1967

Clause 2 inserts a new section 374 to require a foreign company to lodge with the Registrar a return containing prescribed information relating to the foreign company's keeping of its register of controllers, register of nominee directors and register of nominee shareholders. The foreign company must lodge the return at the same time when making a lodgment of its financial statements under section 373(1).

Clause 3 amends section 386AF to replace subsections (2) and (5) and insert new subsection (14).

The new subsection (2) requires a company that is incorporated on or after the appointed day to keep a register of its registrable controllers starting on the date of the company's incorporation.

The new subsection (5) requires a foreign company that is registered under Division 2 of Part 11 on or after the appointed day to keep a register of its registrable controllers starting on the date of the foreign company's registration.

The new subsection (14) defines "appointed day", that is mentioned in the new subsections (2) and (5) to mean the date of commencement of clause 3.

Clause 4 amends section 386AFA so that a reference to a controller or a registrable controller in the new section 386AIA(1) or (6) (which is inserted under clause 5) does not include a director or chief executive officer who is taken to be a registrable controller under section 386AFA(2).

Clause 5 inserts a new section 386AIA to require companies and foreign companies to take certain measures to ensure that the particulars of their registrable controllers are up-to-date and correct.

Under the new section 386AIA(1), a company or foreign company must, at the prescribed frequency, give a notice to each registrable controller whose particulars are stated in the company's or foreign company's register of controllers to —

- (a) confirm whether or not a relevant change has occurred, and if so, to provide particulars of the relevant change; and
- (b) confirm whether the particulars of the controller stated in the register of controllers are correct, and if not, to provide the correct particulars.

The new section 386AIA(2) sets out the requirements of the notice to each registrable controller.

Under the new section 386AIA(3), an addressee of a notice mentioned in the new section 386AIA(1) must comply with the notice no later than the time specified in the notice for compliance.

Under the new section 386AIA(4), a company or foreign company which fails to comply with the new section 386AIA(1) or (2), and every officer of such company or foreign company who is in default, is each guilty of an offence.

Under the new section 386AIA(5), an addressee of the notice mentioned in the new section 386AIA(1) who fails to comply with the notice is guilty of an offence.

The new section 386AIA(6) sets out the circumstances under which a relevant change occurs, for the purposes of the new section 386AIA.

Clause 6 replaces section 386AKA. The existing section 386AKA requires a company to keep a register of nominee directors. The new section 386AKA imposes that requirement on both companies and foreign companies.

Under the new section 386AKA(1), a company or foreign company must keep a register of its nominee directors in the prescribed form and at the prescribed place.

The new section 386AKA(2) states that subject to section 386AM, a company or foreign company must not disclose, or make available for inspection, the register of nominee directors or any particulars contained in the register of nominee directors to any member of the public.

Under the new section 386AKA(3), (4) and (5), a company or foreign company, in keeping its register of nominee directors, must —

- (a) within 7 days after it is informed of any fact and provided with any particulars under section 386AL(1), (1A), (2), (4) or (5), enter that fact and those particulars in its register of nominee directors;
- (b) within 7 days after the company or foreign company is informed under section 386AL(3)(a) or (5A)(a) that a director of the company or foreign company has ceased to be a nominee, enter that fact and the date on which the director ceases to be a nominee in its register of nominee directors; and

- (c) within 7 days after the company or foreign company is informed under section 386AL(3)(b) or (5A)(b) of any change to the particulars of a person for whom a director of the company or foreign company is a nominee, enter the new particulars and the date on which the particulars of the person changed into its register of nominee directors.

Under the new section 386AKA(6), a company or foreign company which fails to comply with the new section 386AKA(1), (2), (3), (4) or (5), and every officer of such company or foreign company who is in default, is guilty of an offence.

Clause 7 amends section 386AL to insert new subsections (1A), (4), (5), (5A) and (9), replace subsection (6) and delete section 386AL(2)(a) as it is spent.

The existing section 386AL imposes requirements on nominee directors of companies. The amendments seek to impose those requirements on nominee directors of foreign companies.

Under the new subsections (1A) and (4), a director of a company or foreign company that is incorporated or registered (as the case may be) on or after the appointed day —

- (a) who is a nominee on the date of incorporation or registration, must inform the company or foreign company of that fact and provide prescribed particulars of the person for whom the director is a nominee on that date; or
- (b) who becomes a nominee after the date of incorporation or registration, must inform the company or foreign company of the fact and provide the prescribed particulars of the person for whom the director is a nominee within 30 days after the director becomes a nominee.

Under the new subsection (5), a director of a foreign company that is registered before the appointed day —

- (c) who is a nominee on the appointed day must inform the foreign company of that fact and provide prescribed particulars of the person for whom the director becomes a nominee within 60 days after the appointed day; or
- (a) who becomes a nominee after the appointed day must inform the foreign company of that fact and provide prescribed particulars of the person for whom the director is a nominee within 30 days after the director becomes a nominee.

Under the new subsection (5A), a director of a foreign company must inform the foreign company —

- (a) that he or she ceases to be a nominee within 30 days after the cessation; and

(b) of any change to the particulars provided to the foreign company under the new section 386AL(4) or (5) within 30 days after the change.

Under the new subsection (6), a director who fails to comply with subsection (1), (1A), (2), (3), (4), (5) or (5A) is guilty of an offence.

The new subsection (9) defines “appointed day” to mean the date of commencement of clause 7.

Clause 8 makes consequential amendments to section 386ALA arising from the amendments to section 386ALB under clause 9.

Clause 9 amends section 386ALB to insert new subsections (1A), (3A) and (7A) and replaces subsections (6) and (7).

Under the new subsections (1A) and (3A), a shareholder of a company or foreign company that is incorporated or registered (as the case may be) on or after the appointed day —

- (a) who is a nominee on the date of incorporation or registration, must inform the company or foreign company of that fact and provide prescribed particulars of the person for whom the shareholder is a nominee on that date; or
- (b) who becomes a nominee after the date of incorporation or registration, must inform the company or foreign company of the fact and provide the prescribed particulars of the person for whom the shareholder becomes a nominee within 30 days after the shareholder becomes a nominee.

Under the new subsection (6), a shareholder of a company or foreign company that fails to comply with subsection (1), (1A), (2), (3), (3A), (4) or (5) is guilty of an offence.

Under the new subsection (7), a shareholder of a company or foreign company is a nominee if the shareholder satisfies either or both of the following:

- (a) the shareholder is accustomed or under an obligation whether formal or informal to vote, in respect of shares in the company or foreign company of which the shareholder is the registered holder, in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of any other person;
- (b) the shareholder receives dividends, in respect of shares in the company or foreign company of which the shareholder is the registered holder, on behalf of any other person.

The new subsection (7A) provides that a shareholder of a company or foreign company who was not a nominee under the existing subsection (7) immediately before the appointed day but is a nominee under the new subsection (7) on the appointed day is treated as a shareholder of the company or foreign company who becomes a nominee on the appointed day.

Clause 9 also replaces the definition of “appointed day” in subsection (8) so that “appointed day” means the date of commencement of clause 9.
