

SEPTEMBER 2018

ACRACONNECT

Bringing you News Bites on the latest corporate and audit regulatory developments

ACRA Service Counter is now located at Revenue House

As part of on-going efforts to serve citizens and businesses better, ACRA's service counter is now co-located, together with the service counters of IRAS, SME Centre and Corppass at Revenue House. Customers can access a range of services such as business registration, taxation, CorpPass and business advisory assistance in a single location. For a shorter wait, customers should book an appointment online before visiting the service counter.

DOWNLOAD PRESS RELEASE

Updates to the Guidance on Registrar of Controllers

Companies, Foreign Companies and LLPs should take note that the Guidance materials to help them comply with regulatory requirements to maintain a register of registrable controllers have been updated. The updated guidance materials include clarifications on identifying registrable controllers.

VISIT WEBSITE

Hosting visitors from the Saudi Arabia's Economic Cities Authority (ECA)

On 3 Sep, Mr Ong Khiaw Hong, ACRA Chief Executive, hosted a delegation led by Mr Wassi Khashoggi, Vice Secretary-General from the Economic Cities Authority, Saudi Arabia. ECA regulates and manages the Saudi Arabian government's Economic Cities programme. The delegation was here to learn from Singapore's experience in facilitating business, licensing and property registration and other related processes across the entire investor life-cycle.

VIEW FACEBOOK POST

Need help starting a business? Check out our video guides

To help aspiring business owners get their entrepreneurial dreams off to a flying start, ACRA has produced a series of video guides on what to take note of when registering a business or setting up a company in Singapore. Check out our series of video guides today!

WATCH VIDEO GUIDE

